Introducing CDW Threat Check

This complimentary service brings together the power of Cisco and Tenable to expose possible malware, signs of external intrusions and other vulnerabilities on your network in an easy-to-deploy package.

The Benefits:

- Easy to Deploy – CDW Threat Check is managed by us. You configure your switch, install the device and participate in kickoff and result review calls. We do the rest.
- Practical – CDW Threat Check monitors your network traffic in an active, nonintrusive way that won't disrupt or seize your data and can be wiped after use.
- Nonintrusive – CDW Threat Check identifies active malware and attacks as well as risky behaviors to help provide justification for information security program improvements and thus help garner CIO support.
- Enterprise-Class Security Tools – Experience cutting-edge security products on your own network with the guidance of CDW Threat Check engineers to navigate tools, identify issues and interpret results.
- Expert No-Pressure Advice – CDW Threat Check engineers will help you review your organization's current security products, practices and procedures to identify improvements to your malware prevention and response posture, without sitting through a sales pitch.
- Decades of Experience – We get security. CDW has maintained a security practice of experts, ranging from product specialists to penetration testers, since 1998.
